PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

Prior to joining Ekistics, Peter worked in the real estate sector in Nairobi, Kenya, as a property consultant. His expertise included residential and commercial property valuations, land economics, and property market research.

Peter joined Ekistics through the University of South Australia's student placement program and later transitioned into a part-time role with the firm after completing his placement.

EXPERIENCE

Peter possesses expertise in the real estate sector, with a strong focus on residential and commercial property valuations, market research, property management and lease negotiations.

Peter is passionate about Urban Design, Planning Healthy Cities, Social Impact Assessment and the application of Digital Twin Technology in urban planning.

At Ekistics, Peter excels in assessing building plans against urban design guidelines, ensuring compliance and alignment with established standards. His role involves conducting thorough research and performing detailed policy and ordinance reviews in accordance with the Planning and Design Code. Peter's meticulous approach and comprehensive understanding of urban planning principles enable him to contribute effectively to the firm's projects and objectives.
